The background is a close-up photograph of a rusty metal surface. The rust is a mix of dark brown, orange, and reddish-brown hues, with some areas showing a more granular, crystalline texture. The metal surface beneath the rust is a dull, greyish-brown color. The lighting is somewhat uneven, with brighter areas where the rust is more prominent and darker areas where the metal is more visible.

A close-up photograph of a tree trunk showing a rough, cracked bark texture. The bark is primarily reddish-brown, with patches of yellowish-green moss and light-colored lichen growing on it, particularly on the right side. Two small, dark, circular holes are visible in the upper-middle section of the bark.

The background of the image is a close-up, high-contrast photograph of crumpled blue plastic. The plastic is heavily folded and creased, creating a complex, organic pattern of light and shadow. The color is a deep, vibrant blue, with some areas appearing lighter due to highlights and others darker due to shadows. The texture is highly tactile and visually busy.
